MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

NOW COMES, the Plaintiff, Juan Davila-Bajana, and appearing pro se, hereby moves this Court to grant a thirty day extension, or, up to, and including June 16, 2006, in which to file his objections to the Magistrate Judge's Report and Recommendation filed herein. As grounds therefore, the Plaintiff respectfully presents:

Plaintiff is an incarcerated pro se litigant. He is not a lawyer, nor is he trained in the niceties of law. Due to his incarceration he must work within the confines of the prison regime and open hours of the institution law library in order to prepare and research materials for preparation of his pleadings for this Court.

Due to these limitations, the Plaintiff requires the additional time in which to prepare his pleadings for filing in this Court.

The granting of this motion would not prejudice any party herein. This motion is being made in good faith.
